MARRIAGES.

How Licenses to Marry are Procured and at What Cost in Memphis-A Plain Statement of Piain Facts-Marriages at Fifty Cents in Memphis.

Matches said to be made in heaven are consummated in Memphis at fifty cents each. The form of the marriage license issued by the county clerk is a gorgeous affair. A picture appears in the foreground representing the groom in a swallow-tailed coat, the bride the groom in a swallow-tailed coat, the bride in a long, flowing veil with orange blossoms & Brothers, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelin a long, flowing veil with orange blossoms on her head, the preacher dressed in the style of George Washington, in dress coat, short clothes and silk stockings, and the attendants and visitors fixed up in tashionable style. A little child stands on the right and appears as if wondering what the fues is about. The license reads as follows: "State of Tennessee-Shelby county, To any one authorized to solemnize marriages,
